ADJOURN:

Do I have the right to speak at a public meeting? The ODL does not guarantee the right to speak at public hearings. Although an individual has the right to attend, record, and observe public proceedings, no specific statutory authority allows an individual to appear before and address a governing body. A governing body may choose to provide an opportunity for comments or discussion at any time or may allow a limited number of comments or a limited amount of time for comments on matters under consideration. During certain meetings, a provision for public comment may be required by statute or local ordinance. No additional items will be added to itinerary as of 4:00 p.m., the day prior to each meeting.
